

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES

JOINT ECONOMIC COMMITTEE

VICE CHAIRMAN JIM SAXTON

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
April 10, 2000

Press Release #106-92
Contact: Christopher Frenze
Chief Economist to the V.C.
(202) 225-3923

IMF/WORLD BANK REFORM HEARING UPDATE

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Fundamental reform of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and World Bank will be examined at a Joint Economic Committee hearing to be held on Wednesday, April 12.

“This hearing will explore the substantive issues related to the need for reform of the IMF and World Bank,” Vice Chairman Jim Saxton said. “I am pleased to have such a knowledgeable panel of witnesses before the Committee to help Congress and the public examine the critical and timely issues of reform of these institutions.”

HEARING TOPIC: Reform of the IMF and World Bank

TIME: 9:30 a.m.

DATE: Wednesday, April 12, 2000

LOCATION: 311 Cannon House Office Building

WITNESS: Allan H. Meltzer, (Carnegie Mellon University) Chairman, International Financial Institution Advisory Committee (IFIAC)
Charles Calomiris (Columbia University) member, IFIAC
Adam Lerrick (Lerrick and Company, Inc.) consultant, IFIAC
Jerome Levinson (American University) member, IFIAC

###